

11-1-68 Paul

NEW YORK
HERALD TRIBUNE APR 19 1968

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

By William Rollins

The Embassy Set

CIA

on the official road: Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will visit Rome April 21-23 for "working meetings" with his Italian counterpart, Amintore Fanfani, and, possibly, talks with Pope Paul VI. . . . Francisco Sino, the Spanish fisherman who pinpointed the fall of the H-bomb off Palomares, now recovered, has been invited to Madrid on Friday to receive the official thanks of the American government from Ambassador Angier Biddle Duke. . . . Spanish Foreign Minister Fernando Maria arrived here from Madrid for a three-day visit to this country that will include talks with Secretary of State Dean Rusk. . . . Australian External Affairs Minister Paul Hasluck met with Hubert Humphrey in the Vice-President's office on the Capitol for 30 minutes, then lunched with Central Intelligence Agency director William Rayborn before meeting Defense Secretary Robert McNamara.

CPYRGHT